PORTSMOUTH (Norfolk County) VIRGINIA.

COUNTY SEAT.

“One of the few cities [of the country that increased nearly 100% in ten years.”

POPULATION, 36,496.

Location.—Situated on the great harbor of Norfolk-Portsmouth, 205 miles from the United States Capitol, Washington, D. C., and eight miles from Hampton Roads, in latitude 36° 50' N., longitude 76° 19' W. from Greenwich; founded in the reign of George II of England, 25th February, 1752; was incorporated as a town and her government separated from Norfolk County by Act of Separation passed by the General Assembly on the 17th of February, 1852. Incorporated as a city March 1st, 1858, with a population estimated at 9,000.

Area.—The boundaries of the City were increased in 1894 and again in 1909, covering at the present time an area of three square miles, the smallest of any city in the State having a population of 25,000 or more, with a density of 12,165.1 people to the square mile. A land-locked harbor representing a yearly traffic of $800,000,000 in value and visited by nearly 8,000 vessels annually, is reached by a deep sea channel 800 feet in width and 35 feet deep. This channel extends from the ocean through Hampton Roads and the harbor, the entire length of the City to the largest Government Navy Yard, Naval Training Station and Marine Corps settlement in the United States. The Government holdings cover over 400 acres of ground and require upwards of $5,000,000 yearly for maintenance, and represent an original cost of $15,000,000 in the aggregate. A military force of 3,500 is kept here permanently, with temporary additions frequently, bringing the total to 10,000. The British established a marine yard on the site of the present Navy Yard for the use of its Navy, just previous to the breaking out of the war of the Revolution, though it is reputed to have been used several years prior to this date as a careening ground for their ships. During the Revolution the State of Virginia confiscated the Yard from the British, and its definite use as a Navy Yard or Station is not stated. It was again taken possession of by the British between the years 1776 and 1779 and retained by them until May, 1779, when it again reverted to the State of Virginia, and was kept until 1794, the United States subsequently becoming the purchaser. In 1861 the torch was applied to shops and buildings of the Yard by the United States forces, and subsequently was taken possession of by the Confederate forces. In 1862 it was again in the hands of the United States Government. It is a matter of historic record that five flags have flown over its destinies, since first used for naval purposes, i. e., British, Continental, State of Virginia, Confederate and United States.

Travel and Transportation.—Local transportation facilities include eight lines of steam railways of the leading national systems, twenty or more steamer and steamboat lines, 31 miles of street railway trackage, and a $2,000,000 sole ferry privilege; the latter owned by the City of Portsmouth and Norfolk County jointly, but operated under lease by The Ferries Company at an annual rental of $135,000. The number of passengers handled by the street railway system, fiscal year ended June 30th, 1913, was 4,895,497, and by the ferries 11,500,000, also 50,000 vehicles and automobiles. All rail and water lines reaching this port are connected by a Belt Line railroad, whose tracks circling the city just outside the city limits, has had the effect of establishing a Manufacturing Zone where factories and industries have sprung up rapidly within a few years. Approximately 325,000 freight cars are exchanged annually, with their 6,000,000 or 7,000,000 tons of freight, requiring eight locomotives and train crews to handle the traffic. The following railroads, representing a trackage of 41,334 miles, reach this city: Atlantic Coast Line R. R., N. Y., P. & N. R. R. (Penna. System), Southern Railway, Seaboard Air Line Railway, Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, Norfolk & Western Railway, Virginian Railway and Norfolk Southern R. R.

Commerce.—The exports for fiscal year 1913 were $16,863,546. Steam coal dumped over the large Hampton Roads piers amounted to 11,429,207 tons for the same period. Cotton receipts, 602,933 bales. Lumber, 700,000,000 board feet, and garden truck (vegetables), 5,000,000 packages, valued at $14,000,000, which included 946,550 barrels of Irish potatoes and 760,619 barrels spinach. This section, of which Portsmouth is the center, has the distinction of raising more spinach than the rest of the United States put together. Oysters, fish and crabs are distributed from here in large quantities.

Industries.—Products from the local factories have an estimated output of $50,000,000 annually, and consist principally of agricultural lime, bagging and ties, barrels, crates, baskets, butter dishes, box shooks, creosoting, car building, cotton seed hull products, cotton seed oil, cotton seed oil refining and cotton seed oil bi-products, cement, dressed lumber, distilled spirits, doors, shutters, office fixtures, excelsior, fertilizers, hosiery and dyeing, ice manufacture, knit goods, lumber, soap, mattresses, ore smelting, fuel oil, paper, paper boxes, paving blocks, pickles and preserves, ship building, staves, tables, telegraph and telephone arms, veneering, etc.

Population.—1890, 13,268; 1900, 17,427; 1910, 33,190; 1913, 36,496. Including suburban population just outside the City limits, the City of Portsmouth boasts of 44,131 people. Color and sex percentage is as follows: White, 67%; Negro, 33%; male, 57%; female, 43%; males, voting age, 10,623; qualified voters, 3,300; total school-age 9,371. Number of families, 7,200; residences and stores, 6,948; multi-family houses 1,144; apartment houses, 35; lodging houses, 20. Among the foreign-born inhabitants Russia leads with 359, followed by Italy, 153; Ireland, 136; Germany, 128; England, 101; Canada, 68; Sweden, 29; Scotland, 26; Austria, 16; Denmark, 15; Norway, 15; Greece, 13; Roumania, 6; Holland, 5; Hungary, 5; Spain, 3; France, 3; Switzerland, 3; Turkey in Europe, 6; Wales, 4; Portugal, 1; other countries, 20; total, 1,015.
